ESO CONFERENCE PERSONALISED APPROACH TO PROSTATE CANCER MANAGEMENT

12 November 2015
Barcelona, Spain

Chairs:

K. Touijer, US - R. Valdagni, IT - H. Van Poppel, BE

Honorary Chair:

L. Denis, BE

Scientific Coordinator:

M.J. Roobol, NL

Under the auspices of

EUROPA UOM

THE CONFERENCE

The “Personalized approach to prostate cancer management” ESO Conference will be held on 12 November 2015 in Barcelona in conjunction with the 7th EMUC meeting (European Multidisciplinary meeting on Urological Cancers).

After the two ESO events on predictive models for decision making in prostate cancer, held in Venice in 2008 and in New York City in 2011, the 2015 Conference will focus on the challenging topic of personalized medicine in prostate cancer.

ORGANISERS

The Conference is organized by the European School of Oncology (ESO - further information available at www.eso.net) in conjunction with EMUC15 (European Multidisciplinary meeting on Urological Cancer - details available at emuc15.uroweb.org and under the auspices of Europa Uomo - the European Prostate Cancer Coalition (further information available at www.europa-uomo.org).

The European School of Oncology was founded in 1982 with the aim of contributing to the reduction of deaths from cancer due to late diagnosis and/or inadequate treatment. By improving the skills of all health professionals dealing with cancer patients, ESO helps shorten the time needed to transfer knowledge from research centres to daily practice, combining advanced technology with humanism in care.

CONFERENCE OVERVIEW

This multidisciplinary and multiprofessional conference will provide highlights on the difference aspects of a personalised approach to prostate cancer management in general and, in particular, on:

- The definition of who is at risk
- The prediction in diagnosis (considering genomics, transcriptome sequencing, biomarkers, imaging)
- The single patient’s needs (considering coping with cancer and decision making, life expectancy and comorbidities, the patient’s perspective)
- Making cancer treatment a personalized approach (considering observational programs, surgery, radiotherapy and brachytherapy, medical oncology)
- Rapid learning systems and transforming cancer care through Big Data
- Future trends in research

TARGET AUDIENCE

This conference is directed toward urologists, radiation oncologists, medical physicists, medical oncologists, pathologists, biostatisticians and investigators in outcomes research and genomics.

EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES

As a result of attending this activity, participants will be expected:

- To define the state of the art of personalized approach to prostate cancer management
- To determine the future research trends within the oncologic community

PROGRAMME

THURSDAY, 12 NOVEMBER

- 8:30 Welcome K. Touijer, US - R. Valdagni, IT
H. Van Poppel, BE
- 8:35 Invited Lecture - Paradigm shifts in prostate cancer K. Touijer, US
- 9:05 Invited Lecture - "Androgen-regulated transcription in prostate cancer" F. Claessens, BE
- 9:35 Who is at risk? Population screening or individualised prediction? M.J. Roobol, NL
- 9:55 Coffee Break

TOWARDS PREDICTION IN DIAGNOSIS

Chairs: N. Mottet, FR - C. Moore, UK

- 10:20 Genetic /genomic tools F. Demichelis, IT
- 10:40 Transcriptome sequencing G. Jenster, NL
- 11:00 Biomarkers A. Bjartell, SE
- 11:20 Imaging C. Moore, UK
- 11:40 PSMA ligands for diagnosis and therapy of prostate cancer U. Haberkorn, DE
- 12:10 Discussion
- 12:30 Lunch

PERSONALISING HEALTHCARE

Chairs: K. Touijer, US - R. Valdagni, IT

- 13:20 The single patient's needs: Coping with cancer and decision making L. Bellardita, IT
- 13:40 The single patient's needs: Life expectancy and comorbidities A. Vickers, US
- 14:00 The patient's perspective K. Mastris, UK
- 14:20 Discussion

MAKING CANCER TREATMENT PERSONAL

Chairs: A. Bossi, FR - M.J. Roobol, NL - C.N. Sternberg, IT - H. Van Poppel, BE

- 14:40 What do we need in active surveillance? R. Valdagni, IT
- 15:00 What do we need in surgery? A. Briganti, IT
- 15:20 What do we need in radiotherapy? A. Bossi, FR
- 15:40 Coffee Break
- 16:00 What do we need in advanced disease? C.N. Sternberg, IT
- 16:20 What do we need to identify patients who may benefit from adjuvant treatments, targeted therapies and drug sequencing combinations? R.J. Karnes, US
- 16:40 What do we need about quality of life in long-term survivors? F. Mols, NL
- 17:00 Discussion
- 17:15 Rapid learning systems: Transforming cancer care through Big Data P. Boyle, FR
- 17:45-17:55 Conclusions

GENERAL INFORMATION

VENUE

The Conference will take place at the Palau de Congressos de Catalunya which is easily accessible by public transport. Barcelona has an excellent public transport system connecting all parts of the city.

CERTIFICATE OF ATTENDANCE

The Certificate of attendance related to ESO Conference can be collected via the EMUC website in return of the filled in Evaluation Questionnaire.

The certificate of attendance related to EMUC15 can be collected as of Monday 16 November via EMUC website.

CME ACCREDITATION

Application for CME accreditation will be submitted to the European Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (EACCME), an institution of the European Union of Medical Specialists (UEMS). EACCME credits are recognised by the American Medical Association towards the Physician's Recognition Award (PRA). Information on the status of the application can be obtain from ESO.

CLOAKROOM/LUGGAGE

A cloakroom is available and is at participants' disposal during congress hours. Please be sure to collect all personal belongings at the end of the day.

GENERAL INFORMATION

CONGRESS MATERIAL

Each delegate can collect congress material which includes the programme book.

ELECTRICITY

Electricity supply in Barcelona is 220 Volts and the connection is made by a two-pin plug. Please be aware that delegates from the USA will require a voltage converter. Delegates from the United Kingdom will require a plug adapter and this is best bought in the UK as they are hard to find in Barcelona.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATION

MCI is the official housing agency, selected by the congress organiser, to be in charge of the hotel bookings for the Meetings. In due time a booking form will be added in order to reserve a hotel room via the EMUC15 website <http://emuc15.uroweb.org>.
